ON THE COVER

35 YEARS AGO

*It was thirty-five years ago, in the summer of '85, when four boys set out on an adventure to find a dead body. Their path would take them into the north state to Hat Creek and Lake Britton for the film Stand By Me, with director Rob Reiner. See page 7*

SAVVY SENIOR

Answers to Social Security questions and more in new column from NBC Today contributor Jim Miller. See page 5

STAYCATIONS

With the unwelcome addition of Covid-19 and its impact on summer travel plans, a lot of people are discovering that there's no shortage of fun things to do that are only one to two hours away. Or even closer in some cases. Pictured at left, Lower McCloud Falls. See page 2

BEETHOVEN & MORE

After a four-month pause during the California Covid-19 shutdown, the Performing Arts Society of Redding returns remotely, with a Friday evening concert series. See page 4
